

WE HAVE THE HIGHEST AVERAGE WEIGHT OF HALIBUT IN THE STATE!

The “Glacier Bay” area includes Pelican, Elfin Cove & Gustavus
This data from 2008 Alaska Dept of Fish & Game webpage located here:

http://www.fakr.noaa.gov/npfmc/current\_issues/halibut\_issues/ADFG\_halibutdata909.pdf

User	Port	MeanWt	No. Fish	Yield (lb)
CHARTER	Ketchikan	18.9	8,309	156,970
	POW Island	9.2	29,412	269,407
	PBG/WRG	22.5	7,232	162,755
	Sitka	16.1	31,641	510,708
	Juneau	11.6	8,517	98,690
	Haines/SKG	11.6	242	2,804
	Glacier Bay	45.3	17,612	797,801
Area 2C		19.4	102,965	1,999,135

User	Port	MeanWt	No. Fish	Yield (lb)
CHARTER	CCI	15.6	53,197	830,941
	Homer	15.4	70,670	1,088,159
	Kodiak	20.2	18,120	366,719
	Seward	15.3	35,352	539,491
	Valdez	24.7	8,826	217,980
	Whittier	21.5	7,501	161,252
	Yakutat	38.9	4,442	172,991
	Area 3A		17.0	198,108

Our average weight is three times that of Sitka, Seward or Homer!

Yakutat has the second highest average weight. The Glacier Bay Area and Yakutat are the least fished areas in the State. However, Yakutat’s king salmon catch rate is near the lowest in the state.